

Website Privacy Policy

This website is operated by Amigos de los Rios, ADLR. It is recognized that visitors to this site are concerned about the information provided and how that information is treated. ADLR cares about the privacy of its website visitors and therefore does not sell or otherwise make available personal identification information to any person or organization. Visitors may sign up to receive future communications and provide us with contact information. You may always “opt out,” or at any time in the future, contact us if you do not wish to receive our messages.

Our website contains links to external websites. These links do not fall under ADLR’s domain. Every effort is made to link to sites that share the same standards regarding your privacy. However, since ADLR is not responsible for the privacy practices of such other sites, users are encouraged to be aware, when they leave this site, to read the privacy statements of each and every website that they visit. The information contained in the privacy policy statement of ADLR is for this website only.

This website contains graphics and text that are the property of ADLR. These properties may not be copied, reproduced, republished, uploaded, posted, transmitted or distributed without the prior written consent of ADLR.

We maintain records of all contributions to ADLR. Authorized staff may contact you to obtain additional information. This may be done through electronic or telephonic means or through postal mail. You may choose to opt out from or restrict the use of your contact information by contacting ADLR through one of the methods below. Donor names and addresses shall not be shared unless required by law or sold to outside organizations, and such policy shall be disclosed to donors. Unless requested not to do so by the donor, ADLR may list the donor's name and donation category in publications. This information may be contained in documents including, but not limited to annual reports, press releases, grant applications and community newsletters. Donors may contact ADLR to view copies of annual reports, IRS (Form 990) or other financial documents prior to making the donation.

This Privacy Policy was last updated in December 2017.
